DISRUPTIONS CAN AFFECT ALL OF US, REGION 10 CAN HELP

Questions you should be able to answer about your small business:

- Does your business have enough cash on hand to operate for a week?
- Do you have the cash flow to operate your business for a month with limited or no sales?
- Do you have a line of credit with your bank?
- Do you have business interruption insurance?
- Do you know what it covers?
- Do you know where your important documents are kept, and do you have a backup copy of them?
- Do you rely on one market or do you have a secondary market?
- Will your business be impacted by the public perception of being in a disaster area?
- Do you have specific messaging for your customers/clients to address the disruption of business?
- Can you operate your business remotely? Are you a sole proprietor or do you have someone who can take over key management roles?
- Do you have adequate product/service inventory for the duration?
- How long will supply chains be impacted? If you manufacture a product, will you need to establish a separate or alternate manufacturing location?
- What would you need to restart your business from scratch?

Region 10 offers specialty consulting and business training on an as needed basis.
