WHY DO I HAVE TO SIGN MY OFFICIAL RETURN ENVELOPE, AND WHAT IF I FORGET?

To protect the integrity of the election, voters' signatures on their ballot envelope must be verified against the signature on file for that voter to ensure the elector voted their own ballot.

A voter whose signature is challenged or missing will receive a letter with an affidavit and instructions to "cure" the issue. The affidavit must be returned by the 8th day after the election (November 14, 2018) in order for their eligible ballot to be counted.
