FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Ouray County Welcomes New Attorney

Ouray County, Colo. – The Board of Ouray County Commissioners (Board) is pleased to announce that Leo Caselli, an attorney currently living in Wyoming, has accepted the position of Ouray County Attorney and will begin working with the County on November 1, 2021.

Leo is a licensed attorney in Colorado and Wyoming, and currently works for the State Office of Administrative Hearings in Cheyenne, Wyoming. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice and Accounting from Southern Oregon University, and a Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree with high honors from the University of Wyoming.

In 2011, he began working for the State of Wyoming as an intern at the public defender's office and gradually worked his way up over the years, including positions as a clerk at the district court, a clerk at the state supreme court, a trial-level public defender, an assistant attorney general, a senior assistant attorney general, and a senior hearing examiner/administrative law judge. Leo also has extensive non-legal experience in food service and the outdoor recreation industry.

When Leo is not working, his current hobbies include snowboarding, cross-country skiing, biking, and volunteering for various local non-profits. His favorite hobby is spending time outdoors with his family and their dog.

Leo looks forward to working hard to advise and represent all of the county officials with all of their goals and projects on behalf of our wonderful community.
