

Auxiliary Aids & Nondiscrimination Notice

The Ouray County Department of Human Services (OCDHS) does not discriminate based on race, color, ethnic or national origin, ancestry, age, sex, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, religion, creed, political beliefs, or disability. OCDHS does not discriminate in employment, admission or access to, treatment or participation in, or receipt of the services and benefits under any of its programs, services and activities.

OCDHS provides:

- Free aids and services for individuals with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - o Qualified sign language interpreters
 - o Written information in other formats

- Free language services for individuals whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - o Qualified foreign language interpreters
 - o Information written in other languages

If you believe OCDHS has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way, you can file a grievance with the Civil Rights Officer within 60 days of the incident. You can file by mail, phone, fax, or email. The Civil Rights Officer can also help you file the grievance.

To request aids and services or to file a grievance:
